3. Name of the personal data file

Stakeholder and membership register of the society.

4. Legal basis and purpose for processing personal data

In accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation, the legal justification for the processing of personal data is the consent of the data subject. The data file contains data of persons that have subscribed to the society's newsletter and data of contact persons of member organisations.

The purpose of processing personal data is to store the contact information of the newsletter subscribers and of contact persons of member organisations. The data will not be used for automated decision-making or profiling.

5. Content of the data file

The register contains the following data: data subject's name and e-mail address.

6. Regular sources of information

The data is collected from stakeholder representatives when they subscribe to the newsletter, and from member organisations when they sign up as members.

7. Regular disclosure of information and transfer outside the EU or the EEA

The data will not be disclosed to any third party.

8. Register protection principles

The processing of personal data in the register is carried out with due care, and appropriate measures are taken to protect the data that is processed through information systems. If personal data is stored on internet servers, appropriate measures are taken to ensure the physical and digital data security of such equipment. The data controller ensures that the stored data, server user rights and other data that is critical for the security of personal data are processed in confidence.

9. The right to verify data and right to rectification

All data subjects have the right to verify their data stored in the register and have any incorrect information corrected or any incomplete personal data completed. If data subjects want to verify or correct their personal data stored in the register, requests concerning such verification must be sent to the data controller in writing. The data controller may require the requester to provide proof of identity if necessary. The data controller will respond to the data subject within the time limit set out in the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (generally within one month).

10. Other rights related to the processing of personal data

Data subjects have the right to request the erasure of personal data concerning them ("the right to be forgotten"). Furthermore, data subjects have other rights as set out in the EU's General Data Protection Regulation, including the right to restriction of the processing of personal data in certain circumstances. Such requests must be sent to the data controller in writing. The data controller may require the requester to provide proof of identity if necessary. The data controller will respond to the customer within the time limit set out in the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (generally within one month).
